"THE following Narrative made publick by the Press, to others in general, is dedicated to you in particular. 'Tis now about Twenty Years, since I first began to minister to you in divine Things: During which Space of Time (through the Goodness of God) I have not been prevented by Indisposition, from Preaching to you, so much as one Sabbath. What my Labours have been, and what the Success of them, is better known to you, than to others. I have great Reason to cry out, My Leanness! My Leanness! At the same Time in the View of what God hath wrought, and is effecting by the late and present plentiful Effusion of his blessed Spirit, I would join with you, in undissembled Praises, unto him, whose Mercy endureth for ever, that the Word of his Truth, hath been so prosperous, in the Day of his Power. Unless the Lord in a very unusual Manner continues to pour out his Spirit upon us, 'tis highly probable, that some of you, who have had only superficial Awakenings; and some others, who have had more powerful Convictions; together with such as may have had only counterfeit Conversions, not having the Root of Grace within, will by and by lose your serious Impressions, and, when Temptations and Trials come, return to Sio and Folly, with additional Hardness of Heart; and some of you become notorious for Wickedness, Satan's..."
