Not illustrated. 1921 Excerpt: ... Foundation authority to receive and maintain funds and apply the income and principal thereof 'to promote the welfare of children in the State of New York and elsewhere throughout the United States and to promote and improve social and living conditions.' It also gives power to establish benevolent, educational, industrial, recreational and welfare activities, agencies and institutions." From Weekly Better Times Bulletin, Jan. 29.-1923. HARMON FOUNDATION, INC. The Harmon Foundation was organized under the laws of the State of New York in November, 1921. In February, 1922, the Certificate of Incorporation was filed at Albany, New York. As a membership corporation it does not operate for gain, and whenever revenues are received, such are employed in the further advancement of the activities of the departments in which the Foundation functions. It is primarily interested in assisting in the application of business methods which will promote efficiency in the branches of educational and philanthropic work. The motivating principle in all its efforts is the belief that a gift of service is of more permanent benefit than a mere donation of money which involves no exercise of initiative or responsibility on the part of the beneficiary. Except in the financing of practical and self-supporting programs, it is the purpose of the Foundation to help groups of people or individuals work out their own problems, rather than give toward an immediate demand which may prove to be of temporary assistance only, and not a real solution of the difficulty. The Foundation is immediately occupied in a five year experiment in the application of business methods to student loans with the expectation of proving that properly selected, student character is sound security in finan...
