World War III took my family - would the destruction claim my heart?

Mom's bleeding in my arms. She could die any moment, but not before she's made me promise three things:

Pray.

Don't trust anyone.

Stay alive.

I promise, but I don't know if I can keep them. Not surviving World War III doesn't scare me, it's surviving it that does.

And without the excitement of seeing Bodey everyday, did I even want to try?

If you're looking for a great dystopian romance, this book is for you

From the bestselling dystopian fiction author with over 2000 reviews and ratings of her dystopic books across Goodreads, Amazon and other retailers.
