'THE INCREDIBLE HULK: The Amazing Story of Marvel's Greenest, Meanest, Jade Giant

The Hulk has been one of the comic world's best loved characters ever since the world first experienced his fury and power in the 1960s. The words violent, misunderstood and controversial barely define of who The Hulk is and what makes him so endearing to readers that easily relate to him and his alter-ego Bruce Banner. He may be that but he is a lot more: a man and a monster, a hero and a villain, a friend and a foe, a victim and a savior.

His adventures, his woes, his enemies seem never ending. You will be hard pressed to trace his storied career spanning more than five decades if this character interests you. What you need is a comprehensive guide that has everything you will need to know about The Hulk in a single platter...and everything you need to know about the not-so-gentle giant is right here in this revealing and fascinating book.

What's Inside?

Included in this book is The Hulk's publication and character history, a fascinating discussion of his amazing powers and abilities, the personality of his alter ego, and his appearances on different mediums.
