What Is The One Thing That Challenges Christians The Most? If you were to ask most Christians what is the toughest part of being a Christian, they would most likely respond in one of the following ways: resisting temptation, loving one's enemies, or enduring pain and suffering. Yet, according to J. L. Moore, the most challenging thing for Christians to do is to obey the most practical command Jesus gave to His disciples. "The Hardest Thing For Christians To Do" describes how believers in Jesus Christ have in subtle ways neglected to practice the simple yet profound mandate to express heartfelt love and concern for one another. Though the consequences are apparent in various ways, J. L. Moore offers a message of conviction and hope to Christians who are ready to take the command of Jesus Christ more seriously.
