Pat Millwood, an aspiring young filmmaker, eagerly hopes to attend one of the best film schools in the nation. Having been denied entry, he commits his freshman year to the university as an alternate and hopes for a rebuttal for the spring admission. However, it never occurred to Pat that a Southern fraternity with an appetite for tailgating, socials, and Southern blondes would ever intercept his efforts towards the film industry— nor did he expect the otherworldly and unnatural elements inside the house. Now, it gives the brothers of Eta great pleasure to cordially extend to you a bid of invitation to pledge your semester to a fraternity with a rich history of knighthood, a cryptic forest, Might Marty the bobcat who loves to party, and a secret trip out the back doors, all underneath God's breath upon the peak of the house.
