The Stone Gods: A Historical Fantasy of Myths and Monsters (Eno the Thracian Book 2) C.B. Pratt

A best-selling action adventure fantasy, set in an Ancient World where the mythology, the monsters and the Gods are real...and a mortal's only hope lies in a hero who can command both sword and sorcery. Book Two in the Eno the Thracian alternative history series.

Eno the Thracian is a hero for hire, solving other people's problem for a profitable fee. In the second book of the series, Eno angers the Great God Pan and is forced to leave his native Thrace for somewhere more 'civilized' where the God of the Wood cannot follow him. The High Priest of Amun in Thebes, Egypt, needs his help but is fuzzy on the details, except that several heroes have already perished after taking on the job. It's possible that civilization has dangers than nature never holds. Still, it's a living...if not for long.
