Rogue State (Stony Man) Don Pendleton

America's defense system faces a deathblow from hidden enemies.

Stony Man

For the dedicated warriors of Stony Man, the rules of engagement are straight and to the point: total deniability. Only the President of the United States can deploy the top-secret team of antiterrorist commandos into battle. When crisis intervention requires stealth and quick response, Stony Man's cyber experts and skilled operatives spring into action to defuse the threat to America.

Target Acquisition

The Slingshot satellite system is America's most vital -- and controversial -- defense. Stony Man successfully halted a strike against its radar facility in Alaska, but now hidden enemies -- a rogue alliance of North Korean and Russian extremists -- have stolen the top-secret data necessary to blow the satellites out of the sky. In a highly covert operation through the unfriendly terrain of North Korea, the odds go from bad to worse when one of their own is captured. But bad odds are the ones Stony Man plays best . . .
