Getting Dirty Lucia Jordan

When Justin Lang chooses Cara Kinkaid's restaurant for an important finance meeting and enters her kitchen, Cara learns quickly that he's all about control. Accustomed to giving orders and having those orders obeyed, Justin insults Cara from the get-go by telling her how—and what—to cook.

Although she's irritated by his arrogant attitude, Cara finds Justin's commanding presence, overt sensuality, and masculine good looks impossible to resist. She flirts with him shamelessly—and then puts Justin in his place by creating a tantalizing gourmet event for his investors.

Flirtation quickly transforms into passion, and Cara and Justin spend the better part of a weekend in bed together. As the hours pass in a haze of passion, they explore their appetites and each other's bodies. But Cara questions the intensity of their connection, afraid that it borders on obsession and mirrors her past relationships. Justin demands control in bed every bit as much as he does in the boardroom. Will Cara submit completely to Justin's desires? Can Justin offer Cara something deeper than physical pleasure? And what consequences will Cara face if she gives up control to remain in Justin's bed?
