Talk about Writing: The Tutoring Strategies of Experienced Writing Center Tutors Jo Mackiewicz, Isabelle Kramer Thompson

Talk about Writing: The Tutoring Strategies of Experienced Writing Center Tutors offers a book-length empirical study of the discourse between experienced tutors and student writers in satisfactory conferences. The study uses a research-driven, iteratively tested framework to help writing center directors, tutors, writing program administrators, rhetoric and composition researchers, first-year composition instructors, and others interested in talk about writing to systematically analyze tutors' talk and to use that analysis to train new tutors.

The book strives toward two main goals: to provide an analytical research and assessment tool?the coding scheme?that other researchers can use to understand writing center tutor talk and to provide a close, empirical analysis of experienced tutor talk that can facilitate tutor training. The study details tutors' use of three categories of tutoring strategies?instruction, cognitive scaffolding, and motivational scaffolding?at macro- and microlevels and results in practical recommendations for improving tutor training.
