Bloodlust Book 1: A Detective Mystery Romance Kaylie Conner

Mitch Thompson is a no nonsense detective working homicide. He is relatively young but hardened and experienced, however nothing can prepare him for the grisly double murders of two young co-eds in a popular college tavern. Both women were found with their bodies drained of blood and their throats savagely ripped out.

There are now witnesses and no evidence left at the scene. Mitch tries to prepare himself for the humongous task in front of him. Meanwhile a young lady named Janie Roberts has contacted Mitch as a possible eye witness. She saw the man who went into the bathroom where the two women were found murdered a short time later. Janie is seductive and beautiful and while she seems all too eager to help the case, Mitch can't help but feel that she is hiding her own demons and that there is a darkness to her that he finds irresistible and frightening.

As he becomes more attracted to her, he finds himself trapped in a world of the supernatural that he never knew existed and hot on the trail of a killer who may not be human...
