The Enforcer

I long ago accepted my place in the shadows. My sole purpose is to enforce order in the chaos of the criminal underworld but when I look at her, I can't help but dream... It's stupid. She's too innocent, too kind for a monster like me, so I've been content to watch her from afar.

But then one day she spoke to me, and I knew my life—and hers—would never be the same...

The Assassin

Death is my business.

Give me a name—and my fee—and I'll eliminate the target, no questions asked, no second thoughts

But this job is different. She's different.

Because when I had her in my sights, something I never expected happened: I flinched.

The Soldier

Sacrifices are necessary. And sometimes innocents have to suffer for the greater good.

I've always told myself that. Believed it, too.

Until I collided with her.

She's plain, curvy, probably easily overlooked by most. Still, I sense a strength in her, a fire, a kindred spirit that draws me.

But she's asking questions, questions that I can't answer, questions that very powerful people don't want asked. And if I can't convince her to stop, she might be my next sacrifice.

The Con

The plan was simple. Get close enough to her to get what I need, then disappear with all the money I could ever need and the freedom that comes with it. But somewhere along the way, she's become more than a means to an end, and I'm worried I might be breaking the first rule in the book:

I might be falling for my own con.
