Alexandria Greyson always wanted a normal life. Something that became a lot harder to do once she accepted her birthright. Now that she has her brother and best friend back, she's hoping that she and Sam can finally settle down and start a family. Unfortunately, trouble has been brewing beyond the veil and all too soon they have their hands full dealing with dragon politics as well as the ire of the Fates.

Now Fairytales are beginning to bleed over into the real world, and with ancient curses set free upon the unsuspecting public, the Godmothers have become more essential than ever before. Unfortunately someone, or something, is picking them off one by one and not even Mal the Magnificent is safe. From a Giant searching for his goose to a pair of glass slippers with a bloody history, evil stepmothers and big bad wolves never looked so good.

NOTE:

This is the sequel to THE DRAGON KING AND I and is the third book in the FAIREST OF THEM ALL series. If you haven't read it yet, the second book, THE FROG PRINCE, is also available on Amazon.
