THE MAN WHO KNEW NO FEAR SANTIAGO MARTINEZ CONCHA

This is an action novel encompassing a violent tragedy with an unsuspected beginning and end. Drug trafficking, guerrilla warfare, the Atrato River, the jungle facing the coast of El Chocó, Santa Marta's Sierra Nevada and the Goajira desert make the background of this story taking place in northern Colombia a true thriller. The characters move within one of the most neglected and mysterious regions of the world with a force of true magic realism. The author performed a true and live investigation to depict the characters, the places and the situations described here as well a thorough research of the past history of the region.
