Black Book is the live history of the band blur as chronicled through their concerts. In particular, it tells their story through the narrative of their live performance recordings. Included are sound quality ratings and detailed reviews for every available recording, over 200 concerts. It also includes a detailed tour date list as well as a comprehensive song list, making it the most detailed book of its kind. With 6 years of work going into this book, it is the *definitive* story of blur on stage and around the world. Whether you're interested in collecting blur's live music or just learning more about their live concert history, Black Book will prove to be indispensable!
