His Dream:

For the first time in 12 years Lord Ryder was back in England in the springtime. The first person he saw was a vision with turquoise eyes; his recurring dream of the IDEAL, the perfect woman. There she sat, in person, and more perfect even than all his dreams.

Her Nightmare:

One look at the very large man, his cape swirling around his shoulders as his green eyes froze in a menacing stare at her, and all Lily's childhood fears returned an hundred-fold, her worst nightmare come true. The monster had finally come for her.

Their Reality:

Would he find her before his enemies found him?
