Jean Baptiste Massillon was born in 1663, at Hyères, in Provence, France. He first attracted notice as a pulpit orator by his funeral sermons as the Archbishop of Vienne, which led to his preferment from his class of theology at Meaux to the presidency of the Seminary of Magloire at Paris. His conferences at Paris showed remarkable spiritual insight and knowledge of the human heart. He was a favorite preacher of Louis XIV and Louis XV, and after being appointed bishop of Clermont in 1719 he was also nominated to the French Academy. In 1723 he took final leave of the capital and retired to his see, where he lived beloved by all until his death in 1742.

Keith Reese:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The World's Great Sermons V3: (Grenville Kleiser Classics Collection) can make you really feel more interested to read.
