New Essays on the American Novels 16-New Essays on the Country of Pointed Firs(English Reprint Edition) (Chinese Edition) June Howard

The Country of the Pointed Firs by Sarah Orne Jewett is one of the most important works of New England local fiction. This collection of essays builds on feminist literary scholarship that affirms the value of Jewett's work, but goes beyond previously published studies by offering an analysis of how race, nationalism, and the literary marketplace shape her narrative. The volume constitutes a major rethinking of Jewett's contribution to American literature, and will be of interest to the fields of American literary studies, feminist cultural criticism, and American studies.
