College Love - True Romance

A story of a beautiful and brilliant young woman thrust into a new life at college

Eve is a hard worker and a brilliant student with a flawless record. She may only have been kissed once, and no one took her to prom – but now she’s made it to college, to Brown, and she’s ready to start her academic journey to set up her future success. When she bumps into Ethan Riley – quite literally, he sends her flying and spills coffee over her new textbooks. The rude and arrogant older student instantly gets on the bad side of Eve, her new roommate Jena, and her classmate Alison. But all of that may change, after a fateful decision to attend a sorority party and have just one night of fun might leave at least one of the girls with more than a sore head in the morning. When Ethan comes to the rescue, is he really a knight in shining armour – or does he have an ulterior motive?
