In this riveting and suspenseful story, Nori Felton has always had the odds stacked against her, from being raised by a drunken, drug addicted, aunt because her parents abandoned her and her older brother Noel to then losing her brother in the blink of an eye. Left with no choice but to get it on her own, Nori turns to the streets for independency and solace. From the eyes of Amare Evans, Nori is just what he needs right now in this life of sin but Nori is not impressed by his façade. She denies Amare every chance she gets until she finally realizes Amare is all she has and ultimately what she needs.

In You're All I Need, Nori is on an emotional rollercoaster as she struggles to find her footing without the help of her brother. Amare is deep in the streets but is willing to place his hustle on the back burner for a chance at experiencing real love for the first time.

Unfortunately, for the two of them love didn't come with a happy ever after. Secrets come to light which will shake the couples relationship, resulting in a trail of dead bodies. Who will be the last standing, if anyone at all?
