La Casa Blanca: Historia de un compromiso incumplido o la venta del país. (Spanish Edition) Gerardo Fernández Noroña

En este libro relato una historia particular: mi relación con el monumento a la corrupción que la Casa Blanca de Sierra Gorda número 150 representa y la historia de un compromiso incumplido por el desgobierno de Peña, a saber, deshacerse de esa casa.

Pero el libro y la reflexión no pueden quedarse en el anecdotario. Decidí incluir en ella, además el testimonio de lo que viví en relación con el ultraje al pueblo de México, el contexto en que este agravio se ha dado y sobre mi convicción de la necesidad de obligar a Peña Nieto a renunciar a la presidencia la República, y de lograrlo sin necesidad de ejercer la violencia.

El libro incluye además una tesis que explica la razón por la cual considero fueron víctimas de desaparición forzada los 43 normalistas de Ayotzinapa. La tesis es monstruosa como monstruoso es el comportamiento del desgobierno de Peña.

Espero que este esfuerzo sirva a la reflexión y contribuya a la indignación, motor para la acción que nos lleve a lograr poner de pie un país que está de cabeza.
