Steve Bines is young to control the amount of wealth he has. Mostly inherited, Steve is working to turn his enormous wealth into a sustainable income stream. When Julie Sanderson walks into his life, however, his financial status takes a back seat to their almost instant chemistry.

Julie Sanderson is a copy editor who takes on the task of turning Steve Bines' company into a marketing feast of fodder. She wants his company's name to be everywhere. The only stumbling block is that she can't seem to get past her attraction to Steve any more than he can get over his own feelings for her.

When these two come together, their financial status won't be the only thing they have to discuss as some unexpected news puts a serious wrench in the plans each of them has made for the future.
