Cyberpolitics: Citizen Activism in the Age of the Internet (People, Passions, and Power: Social Movements, Interest Organizations, and the P) Kevin A. Hill, John E. Hughes

Cyberpolitics goes beyond the hype to analyze the content of political discussion on the Internet and to see how the Internet is being used politically. Empirical research translated into dozens of graphically compelling figures and tables illuminates for the first time Internet characteristics heretofore only speculated about: Who are the _cybercitizens_ using the Internet, how do they participate in the political process, and who uses the Internet most effectively to accomplish political ends?
