Exposed (All Eyes On Us) (Volume 1) Jennifer Domenico

This is a standalone that contains material suitable for adult audiences. Him. He walked in and turned my perfect life upside down. He's made it clear he wants me, but I fight him off. I have to. He's the worst possible romantic option for me. My mind knows I need to stay away, but my body didn't get the message. Every time he's close, I feel myself giving in just a little bit more. But every move Antonio makes is tracked by the insatiable media. Between them and his jealous costar, it's too much to risk. At any moment, I could be exposed. My only choice would be to run. Again. Her. Those eyes. That body. Her lips. I thought I would spend six weeks in this small town, film my movie, and get out. I didn't anticipate the impact she would have. Her eyes beg me to hold her, but her words fight me with every breath. I don't know what caused those walls around her heart, but I intend to knock them down. I won't be satisfied until I do. What Giovanna needs to know is I get any woman I want. And I want her.
