This is more than a historical look at some heroic Aboriginals. Jasmine and Wayne Frye blow the lid off all you have read before. This book reads like an adventure novel, as the reader is propelled into places and times where truly heroic Aboriginal leaders in Canada and the USA stood their ground against insurmountable odds. The Battle of the Little Bighorn seems to come alive, as you are thrust into combat, and wait until you find out who really delivered the death blow to Custer – what a surprise. From Ayenwatha to Leonard Peltier, the truth is laid bare for all to examine.
