River Journal: Miramichi River (River Journal Series) Paul Marriner

The heralded home of Atlantic salmon, New Brunswick's Miramichi River is well deserving of the many superlatives often bestowed upon it. Learn more about its famous waters, including where to wet a line and what flies to use, from this edition of the River Journal series. The book's large, color format, sumptuous photography, and lively, descriptive text bring the river and its angling possibilities to life. Like other volumes in this series from Frank Amato Publications, the river's history, wildlife, hydraulics, and fishing conditions are described in detail for the angler's benefit.
