The long-awaited eBook The 39 Articles of Religion, A Commentary With Introduction To Systematic Theology by Bishop John H. Rodgers, Jr. is a fresh and sympathetic exposition of the faith expressed in the official and historic Anglican confession. Rodgers' contemporary treatment is a winsome blend of rigorous theology, biblical scholarship, and pastoral sensitivity. He explains both the biblical foundations and practical applications of the 39 Articles in a way that is both rewarding for clergy and accessible to lay leaders. Thomas Cranmer's 39 Articles were adopted in 1571 to be the Church of England's constitutional declaration of its faith and order. The Articles are a series of affirmations on key issues, grouped as follows: Articles 1-5 – The creedal doctrine of God the triune Savior; Articles 6-8 – The reliability of Canonical Scripture (books listed); Articles 9-19 – Salvation by grace only by faith only; Articles 19-31 – Specifics on the church and sacraments; Articles 32-39 – Order and discipline in the then newly-reformed Church of England. The 39 Articles were and remain a reformed declaration of the Apostolic faith.

Rodgers' book will endure as a resource for those who battle for the original, continuing Apostolic faith that defines real Anglicanism versus a watered-down and washed away "theology" that would gut Christianity in the name of modernity. Laced with Rodgers' usual flair and wisdom this work should go a long way in providing a guide for Anglican pastors and theologians throughout the world. This eBook version of the 767 page print edition is searchable and contains the full general and scripture indices. Forward by the renowned author and theologian J.I.Packer.

Bishop John H. Rodgers, Jr. is the Dean/President Emeritus of Trinity School for Ministry and a founding bishop of the Anglican Mission in the Americas. He earned his Doctorate of Theology (Th.D.) summa cum laude at the University of Basel in Switzerland where he studied with noted theologians such as Karl Barth and Oscar Cullmann. Bishop Rodgers was part of the founding faculty of Trinity School for Ministry, teaching Systematic Theology and serving as Dean/President from 1978 – 1990, continuing on the full-time faculty until 1995. Bishop Rodgers has remained active with Trinity as adjunct faculty and stepping in as Interim Dean/President from 2007 - 2008. He is an assisting Bishop in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Anglican Church of North America. Rodgers and his wife Blanche have four children and nine grandchildren. They live in Western Pennsylvania.
