You could be a month away from achieving your dreams of becoming an author!

In this book you'll discover...

The Step-By-Step System for Planning, Outlining and Writing Your Manuscript

Did you know that over 70% of Americans dream of one day writing a book? But most people never get around to doing it! That's all about to change when you're done with How To Write a Book.

In this life-changing book, you'll discover the simple system for doing everything you need to do to plan, research, outline, and actually complete your book manuscript - in just 30 days for most nonfiction authors.

Will your book be perfect in 30 days? No! But it will be completed and ready for professional editing, self-publishing or presentation to a literary agent if you so choose.

How to Structure Your Book for Success

How do you write a book? First you write the structure. Then you create the content. In How to Write a Book, Joel shares his step by step system for making the writing process a whole lot easier and more productive.
